Come & Sing Mozart Requiem

05.07.2025

St Anne's Church
Cheadle Avenue
L13 3AE

Dear Singer, Choir Director, Friend,

Following the success of our last Come and Sing with Sullivan's The Light of the World in the summer of 2024, the Oriel Singers are delighted to invite you to this year's 'Come and Sing' Mozart Requiem on July 5th in St Anne's, Cheadle Ave, Liverpool at 1.30pm (registration) / 5.30pm (concert).

Again we have been able to secure some fantastic musicians as instrumentalists and soloists:

Joe Watson, who will play the organ for us, is Choral Director of the Girl's Choir at the Metropolitan Cathedral and until recently director of music at St Faith's, Crosby.

Our soloists, Ellie, Phoebe, Dan, and Rudy, are experienced singers from the Guildhall, Birmingham, York and HfMT Hamburg, who sing regularly in the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Choir and have recently started an ensemble together.

Last but not least, and indeed, best of all, we would be delighted for you to join us in the interpretation we worked on during the term and produce our signature sound together.

Music & dress

Please inform us via the sign up link below what voice part you sing and whether you need to borrow a copy of the music, or whether you will bring your own. Concert dress will be all black. The schedule for the afternoon is at the end of this information letter. We will use that email to send you a marked up copy as a pdf.

Concert Introduction - Mythos and History

Before the concert, director Rudiger Ruwe will give a brief introduction about the stories surrounding the requiem, which remains shrouded in mystery. Stories range from forgery, copyright infringement to downright murder!

Audience members free entry

We ask Come and Sing participants to donate at least £5 to this event. This covers score hire and refreshments during the rehearsal break.

Audience members get in free, so please bring as many guests as you like! However, we still need to cover the costs of professional musicians and venue hire. So if you are able to do so, please give generously, so that we can continue to offer concerts in this manner and allow access to music for those who are less fortunate.
